Summary

I'm a B.Tech Computer Science and Design graduate from Viswajyothi College of Engineering and Technology, affiliated with APJ Abdul Kalam Technological University, with a strong interest in data engineering, database technologies, and software development.Currently working as a Data Engineering Intern at AkumenByQ, I am gaining practical experience in SQL Server, relational database management, query writing, and database objects such as views and stored procedures. This role is helping me strengthen my understanding of data management, data processing, and database fundamentals.Previously, I gained hands-on experience as a MERN Stack Developer at Luminar Technolab, working with MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js to build full-stack web applications. My experience as a Campus Ambassador at TECHMAGHI and Marketing Intern at Corizo also helped me develop communication, outreach, and technology marketing skills.My technical interests include SQL, Python, data engineering, database management, and software development. I enjoy exploring new technologies, solving problems, and applying my knowledge to practical challenges.Im eager to keep learning, expand my technical expertise, and contribute to building reliable, efficient, and scalable data-driven solutions.
